

Horton Village Hall

Equal Opportunities and Diversity policy statement

Introduction

Horton Village Hall is community owned, administered by trustees and run by an elected committee of unpaid volunteers, which exists for any member of the village and the surrounding area to make use of via clubs, social groups, events and gatherings run by both the hall committee and by independent groups. It is also available for hire to groups and individuals.

Scope

This policy applies to everyone associated with Horton Village Hall.

Purpose

Horton Village Hall and its volunteers and supporters are committed to valuing and promoting diversity in the provision of the facility and all the events organised in the Village Hall to benefit members of the community. The Village Hall committee will work towards an environment that is based on inclusiveness, where all users can benefit from the facility and the organised events to their full potential, irrespective of their race, gender, marital status, age, disability, religious belief, political opinion, or sexual orientation.

Philosophy

Managing diversity is an effective way of dealing with equal opportunities issues. It emphasises the benefits to the community that accrue from valuing the differences between people, in addition to complying with the law. As a charity (Horton Village Hall) we grasp the additional benefits generated by encouraging diversity. We are far more likely to enjoy new users from within the village and the wider community and encourage representatives to attend committee meetings and share in the running and management of the hall and to subsequently benefit by continuing to maintain the facility and provide events and initiatives locally.

Why is Diversity important?

It is essential that we attract people to benefit from our facility and its associated events, for the positive rewards for the community and the future of the Village Hall.

The UK is an increasingly diverse society. In order to maximise the opportunities we can offer we should reflect and value that diversity in our planning and organisation, promotional activity and events delivery.

There are a number of laws that set out how people should act. Relevant and important ones are:

Sex Discrimination Act 1975

Race Relations Act 1976 - as amended by the Race Relations (Amendment) Act 2000

Disability Discrimination Act 1995

Equality Act 2006

The Protection from Harassment Act 1997

Gender Reassignment Regulations 1999

Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974

Equal Pay Act 1970

Where there is any conflict between the above and the Charity's Child Protection Policy, the Child Protection policy shall have precedence.

Implementation

Village Hall Committee Members - their Responsibility

To value diversity in society as a means of broadening our user group and Village Hall committee, achieving the maximum we are able to for the Village Hall and the local community.

To not tolerate unacceptable behaviour, and foster an environment in which all users and committee members are confident to raise concerns and have them dealt with quickly, sensitively and effectively.

To identify the various forms of behaviour and barriers that discrimination can take, and understand the negative effect these can have on the reputation of the Village Hall and the community.

To monitor the application of this Policy, preventing any discriminatory practices which may be limiting the Village Hall's ability to achieve its' aims, thereby enhancing our reputation as a fair and responsible provider and organiser in the eyes of its users and suppliers.

Individual Committee members, have a responsibility to support the aims of the Policy, and to ensure that the principles of Diversity are applied in their behaviour and dealings with others. Deliberate breaches of this policy will be addresses by the committee at the next scheduled committee meeting.

To comply with the letter and spirit of this policy.

Village Hall User's (included events organised by the Village Hall Committee) - their Responsibility

To be aware of the various behaviours and barriers that discrimination can take, and understand the negative impact these can have on the Village Hall's reputation and its user's.

To be sensitive to the potential impact of their own behaviour on other users.

To seek clarification from a member of the Village Hall Committee if they are unsure.

To co-operate with members of the Village Hall committee in the prevention of any discriminatory practices that may be identified.

To comply with the letter and spirit of this policy

Procedure

The benefits and requirements of adopting the spirit of this policy should be seen in the following areas:

Facilities provided by the Village Hall

Planning of events

Promotion of events

Delivery of events

Every effort should be made to attract users from all sections of society.

Complaints

If any user or committee member believes that they have been unfairly discriminated against they should make a complaint to the Chairperson of the Village Hall Committee who will take the allegation very seriously and conduct a thorough investigation. A complaint relating to the Chairperson should be made to a Trustee (contact information can be obtained from the Village Hall Committee Secretary).

Monitoring

The Village Hall Committee will maintain relevant minutes of decisions taken in the running of the Village Hall and events. It is the responsibility of all users and committee members to apply and monitor the application of the Diversity Policy on a day by day basis. Following a full investigation the Village Hall Committee will review any potentially discriminatory practices identified and take what action they are able to prevent repetition.

Alterations and Amendments to this Policy

This policy will be reviewed in line with the Village Hall Policy and Procedure Review Policy.

A successful Diversity Policy requires the genuine commitment of all persons associated with Horton Village Hall.
